1. APPLICATION

These rules shall govern all competitions played under the auspices of the Barbados Football Association (BFA) and are applicable to all affiliated members.

2. INTERPRETATION

References to the male gender in the Rules in respect of players, referees or officials are for simplification and apply to both men and women.

3. PLAYERS' ELIGIBILITY

- A Bona fide members of Clubs affiliated to the BFA, shall be eligible to participate in these competitions, subject to Rule 4 Registration Items
- (I) A maximum six (6) overseas players can be registered for each club. All six (6) players can be on the field of play at any given time.
 - (II) Such registrations, where necessary, must be implemented under the relevant FIFA regulations pertaining to the international transfer of players.
 - (III) Where Clubs and player(s) enter into playing agreements of any kind, a copy of such agreement must be submitted to the BFA with the player(s) registration form(s).
 - (IV) Clubs which register players under the age of eighteen (18) years, must obtain a consent form provided by the

BFA which gives permission and must be attached to the player's registration form.

- (V) All competitions, except those for the Under-15 and below, shall be gender exclusive.

4. REGISTRATION

A. CLUBS

Each affiliated club desirous of participating in these competitions must complete the club licensing process yearly. The required information must be returned to the Secretariat, on or before the deadline determined by the BFA, accompanied with the appropriate registration, affiliation and competition fees, as outlined below:-

- (1). Entrance fee: [new clubs only]: $200.00
- (2). Annual subscription: [all clubs]: $200.00
- (3). Competition fee - Challenge Cup: $100.00

B. PLAYERS

- (i) Each eligible player must be registered, through one club, on the appropriate BFA form, which are available at the BFA headquarters or on the BFA website at www.barbadosfa.com.
- (ii) A player is permitted to represent one (1) club only during that calendar year

- (III) Players shall be registered as amateur, non-amateur or professional, as contained in the special regulations of FIFA, governing the status and transfer of players.
- (IV) Players shall have a written contract with the club which employed/registered them. These contracts shall be lodged with the BFA.
- (V) The BFA may stipulate additional provisions to be included in every contract between a club and any player registered with the BFA for any of its competitions.
- (VI) All clubs and players are reminded of Rule 4 Registration above and that the registration process is complete only when, if applicable, the completed transfer form and the appropriate fees are submitted to the BFA. Incorrect information may render the registration invalid.

Each club participating in the BFA's senior competitions shall register a minimum of twenty (20) players and five (5) officials at a registration fee determined yearly by the BFA.

- (VI) The BFA will not sanction any club or player in any competition until such club or player has complied with the requirements of registration.
- (VII) All registered players in the Premier League, Division One and all National selectees are permitted to play only BFA sanctioned competitions.
- (IX) This rule MUST be strictly observed. Players, clubs or leagues who contravene this rule SHALL be disciplined by the BFA. BFA competitions refer to competitions directly organised by the BFA (See Rule 6 Item A). ALL member Clubs are directed to bring this rule to the specific attention of their registered players.
- (X) A Club which enters two (2) teams must register thirty-six or more players in the Premier League, Division 1 and Division 2. Reserve League teams will have a minimum of 16 players.
